M'CHESNEY IN FORM.

The feature race at Hawthorne yesterday resulted in a very close and exciting finish, but was marred by the questionable tactics of jockey Buchanan, who allowed the winner, Hermencia, to crowd and bump other horses several times after turning into the final quarter. The race was the fourth, a free handicap dash of one and one-eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward. Scarlet Lily, which has run so consistently here this year, was made the favorite, being held at 8 to 5 in the betting. Hermencia was always held about the 2 to 1 mark. To a good start Scarlet Lily at once dashed to the front, closely attended by Artna and Silurian, with Flying Torpedo a bad last. Scarlet Lily held a slight lead until just about turning for home, where Artna moved up on even terms with her. Silurian began to show signs of distress along in here and fell away beaten. When well straightened for home Buchanan moved up fast on Hermencia and in a long drive gradually wore down Scarlet Lily in the final sixteenth, winning somewhat handsily at the end by a head. Artna finished third, two and a half lengths back. Just after turning for home Buchanan allowed Hermencia to swerve into Artna, bumping her out of her stride and then in the last sixteenth he crowded Scarlet Lily repeatedly. For the fouling Hermencia was promptly disqualified, Scarlet Lily being placed first, Artna second and Silurian third. Scarlet Lily displayed more gameness than usual and ran to her best form. Artna was well beaten when the interference occurred at the head of the stretch. Silurian ran well for about seven furlongs. Flying Torpedo's race was a joke. He was hopelessly beaten off all the way and showed scant speed. The mile and an eighth was run in 1:52, which is a half second faster than the previous track mark.

McChesney showed conclusively in the last race that he is undoubtedly the best three-year-old in training in the west. The race was a dash once around the circle and he was held at 1 to 2 in the betting, quite a good price when his last race was taken into consideration. Off none too well he laid along in last position for the first quarter and then gradually improved his position, turning into the stretch third to Jimenez and Joe Frey, which led him by about one and a half lengths. When once straightened for the wire he moved up with a splendid burst of speed and easily wore down the leaders, winning in a canter by four lengths from Joe Frey, which beat Jimenez a half for second place. Joe Frey ran to his best form, but when Woods saw that his mount had no chance to beat the winner he eased him up slightly at the end. Jimenez showed more gameness than usual and stood a long stretch drive in good style. Marcos ran well for six furlongs and Rabunta showed a flash of early speed.

The day's opener, a dash of six furlongs for four-year-olds and upward, proved a somewhat easy thing for the long overdue Carl Kahler, skillfully ridden by Coburn. Lady Idris and Emma R. ran in the lead as one horse for a half mile, where the latter began to tire slightly. In the last eighth Coburn, who had taken back his mount in the first half, moved up fast with Carl Kahler and, easily passing Lady Idris when a sixteenth out, won by two lengths from Scotch Plaid, which beat Lady Idris three for second place. Scotch Plaid closed up ground fast in the final furlong and finished stoutly. Lady Idris outstayed Emma R. in the last sixteenth struggle for third place. Both showed their usual flash of speed. Layia showed scant speed and ran far below her best form. Light Ball's race was too poor to be true and should be thrown out in future figuring. Ben Ledi appears to be of no present account.

The steeplechase over the short course went to Lord Farandole. He ran back to his best form, fenced excellently well and easily came away in the last eighth at call from Mazo, beating him by two lengths, with Torreon a beaten off third. Mazo showed improvement and should be an important factor in races of this kind from now on. He has speed on the flat and jumps well. Torreon was well spent after taking the ninth jump. Captain Conover ran well to the eighth jump. Iceni lost his rider over the sixth jump and Meddler fell heavily over the third. The spectators were thrown into fits of laughter by the ludicrous jumping of Golden Way, which climbed over several of the obstacles.

Serge was the best of an unwieldy bunch of fifteen that faced the barrier in the second race, a dash of five furlongs for maiden two-year-olds. Off well in front, he displayed much speed and simply played with the field, winning by two lengths from King Hammon, which beat Antagonist one and a half for second place. King Hammon put up a good performance and ran to his best form. Antagonist tired fast in the final sixteenth and would have lost third place to Gilfain in another stride or two. Judge Himes showed early speed, but tired rapidly when the pinch came.

Corinne Unland, coming with a determined rush under a terrific drive, got up just in time to nip Declamer on the post by a nose in the fifth race, a dash of six and a half furlongs. Declamer's defeat was due to Helgesen's carelessness, for had he gone on about his business in the last sixteenth instead of looking continually around to the right, Declamer must have won. Cork finished a lapped on third. Judicious, the even money favorite, appeared to be the winner when a furlong out, but tired fast when Winkfield called on her. Red Tip's race was too bad to be true. He showed little speed and was never a serious contender. He can do much better and the race should be ignored. Little Gem as usual showed early speed.

Probably the largest crowd of the week was present and enjoyed a good day's racing. The track is now at its very best.

SARATOGA GOSSIP.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 28.—The Saratoga racing season closed today in a blaze of glory. Generous and prolonged applause greeted the bugler when he played "taps" in calling the field to the post for the last race, and the largest share of the spontaneous hand clapping was an expression of intense approval bestowed upon the master hand that had wrought so well in the person of Mr. W. C. Whitney, who was easily the most conspicuous figure in the stewards' stand.

The bad start in the Saranac Handicap was greatly deplored on account of the marvelous showing made by Francesco, which was nearly left and was timed the nine furlongs separately from wire to wire in 1:50 1/4.

The famous race mare, Los Angeles, has been sold by her owner, "Lucky" Baldwin, to Isaac Labold for $10,000.

It appears that Senator O'Brien's case was misstated, and that only the one horse, Hans Wagner, was put under the ban. He raced his horse Wild Pirate today.

W. J. Thompson "Duke of Gloucester" was at the track today.

C. J. Fitzgerald is reported to be doing well and on the road to rapid recovery.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

As a sequence of the disqualification of Hermencia yesterday, Buchanan, the offending jockey, was suspended for ten days. The punishment was deserved. A jockey who cannot win through his superior skill and the greater speed of his mount has no right to win by impeding contending horses.

The judges suspended jockey M. Weber indefinitely yesterday for "incompetence." S. C. Hildreth sold Gonfalon yesterday to Harry Robinson for $1,200.

Winner—Ch. g, by Morocco—Kisbern (trained by W. F. Presgrave).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Moor, luckily placed and saving ground on the turns and judiciously reserved, made good in game fashion at the end and is a rank in and outer. Satire is in good form, set a hot pace and held on unusually well. Wild Pirate closed up very strongly after being carried wide on the stretch turn. Peninsula, badly interfered with at the half, closed with a rush. Redpath, away badly, went a fast middle half and tired.

Scratched—18586 Sarmatian, 111; 34608 Lord Badge, 103; 33553 El Oriente, 103; 34555 Rappenecker, 101; 34535 Heroics, 98; 34579 King's Favorite, 96; 34608 Joy Maker, 93.

Winner—Ch. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Belle Daly (trained by J. Frayling).
Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Red Knight seemed sore when going to the post, but broke fast and held a good position behind the pacemakers to the stretch, where he came along strongly and caught them tiring. Meltonian broke slowly and was hopelessly pocketed almost throughout, but pulled out and came around on the outside too late to catch the winner and was easily best. Auriesville succumbed to the terrific early pace, but stuck to her work gamely at the end and is a superior class filly. Americano forced the pace for the first half and retired in the stretch. He is steadily improving and will be heard from. Dr. Saylor was out of place after his recent long races. Bridesmaid II., away poorly, ran a good race. Scoffer was practically left.

Scratched—(34510) Lass o' Linden, 114; (34487) Nevermore, 107; 34582 Claude, 105. Red Knight, show, 11 to 20. Meltonian, show, 1 to 4. Auriesville, show, 11 to 20.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hermencia—Katy of the West (trained by J. H. McCormick).
Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Hermis received a lucky start and was skillfully handled, waited on Whiskey King to the last furlong, where he moved up and wore the latter down in the final drive. Whiskey King showed great speed throughout and finished stoutly. Cunard broke flatfooted and was pocketed in the first half, made up much ground in a hurry in the middle half and failed to stay when in the stretch. Caughnawaga went well throughout and is improving. Francesco, nearly left, closed an immense gap and was probably best. Smart Set sustained his speed well throughout. Heno ran a remarkably good race and will be hard to beat in soft going. Gay Boy was evidently short.

Hermis, show, 2 to 1. Whiskey King, show, 8 to 5. Cunard, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Saviour—Belle d'Or (trained by A. Conrad).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Cloche d'Or, lucky and reserved to the stretch, came with a rush at the end and won drawing away. Ithan was best, but was carried hopelessly wide on the stretch turn and stumbling under a weak ride finished him. Latrobe displayed enduring speed throughout and should improve. Diamante made up much ground and finished fast. Scottish Blue showed much speed, but went wide on the turn, losing much ground. Merry Royal broke slowly and made up considerable ground.

Scratched—34607 Embarrassment, 110; 32892 Jake Greenberg, 110. Cloche d'Or, show, evens. Ithan, show, 1 to 4. Latrobe, show, 7 to 10.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"From present indications there will be twenty-five starters in the Futurity next Saturday. It is almost an assured fact that the colors of J. R. & F. P. Keene will be carried by Dazzling, Sir Launcelot, Dalesman, Whitechapel and Flying Prince. They will be ridden by Shaw, Spencer, Rice, Shea and Brennan, although the mounts have not as yet been allotted. Many trainers say that Sir Launcelot, a brown colt, by Kingston—Citronella, which will carry only 117 pounds, has a royal chance to win. Trainer Healey said yesterday that R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Mexican has entirely recovered from his lameness and will surely start," says the Sun of Wednesday.

"C. R. Ellison's Skilful, because of his victory at Saratoga yesterday, has made many friends. August Belmont is still expected to start Mizzen, Fire Eater and Lord of the Vale. J. P. Kraner's Golden Maxim, because of his phenomenally fast work last week, already has a host of followers. J. E. Madden was busy yesterday putting the finishing touches on his smart filly Merry Reel and the colt River Pirate, W. C. Whitney's Payne, and Whitney & Duryea's Irish Lad and Acefull. Julius Fleischmann's Hurstbourne, according to Tom Welsh, cannot lose. S. S. Brown's Blue Ribbon is considered by many to be a dark horse, especially as he has been burning up the track at Sheepshead. The probable starters and their weights are as follows:

Horses.	Wt.	Horses.	Wt.
Irish Lad.....	130	Golden Maxim.....	119
Mexican.....	127	Onatas.....	119
Mizzen.....	125	Bensonhurst.....	119

"It was said yesterday that the regular starter, C. J. Fitzgerald, might be able to send the big field away. Mr. Fitzgerald is well on the way to recovery from his recent attack of typhoid fever."

At the dinner given by Mr. Whitney to the directors of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses at the club Tuesday night the affairs of the association were informally discussed. One of the men who was at the dinner made the following statement:

"There were no set speeches, but everybody chipped in something to the general conversation. It seemed to be the general opinion of all the directors that, when the matter came up for formal decision, the same dividend on the stock as was declared last year should be declared this year. The net profits last year were about $78,000. The estimated profits this year from the meeting which will close on Thursday will be about $130,000.

"The increase shows the wisdom of increasing the price of admission, and you may depend upon it that the admission will be $5 before it is ever again $2. The purses will be increased next year and all the surplus will be used in making next year's meeting better than this.

"Entries for many of the stakes to be run next year closed on the 18th. One of these is a new event, to be called the Saratoga Derby. It will be a race for three-year-olds, at one and five-sixteenths miles, with $5,000 added. The stake closed with 168 entries and promises to be worth to the winner between $15,000 and $20,000. Of the stakes which closed on the 18th, the nominations averaged forty more to a stake than they did last year."

Time, 12 3/4, 24 3/8, 48 3/4, 1:13 3/4.
Winner—B. c, by Faraday—Alta Blue (trained by W. M. Barrick).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Cornwall broke slowly and was compelled to race wide on the extreme outside, but finished with an electric burst of speed and was best. Mary Worth ran a fast and game race and is steadily improving. Sadducee failed right at the end and was badly crowded by the winner. Rapenecker has improved and finished strongly. Optional is best in mud.
Scratched—(34436) Brandy Smash, 113; 34555 Delmarch, 110; 34579 Edgefield, 106; 34211 Malden, 103; 34555 Anecdote, 101; 34579 King's Favorite, 95.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

At Saratoga Tuesday, J. H. Carr said that he would start Leipsic in the Futurity and that Wonderly would have the mount. It turns out that Carr has all along had first call on Wonderly's services, but has allowed J. B. Haggin to use the jockey whenever the latter needed him. But Carr now believes that Leipsic has a chance to win the big race, so that Mr. Haggin will have to look elsewhere for a rider. The Haggin eligibles in the Futurity include Teddy Mack, Sir Voorhies, Parisienne and Miss Dorothy, and, as all of the best jockeys have been already engaged, it looks as if the millionaire turfman will experience trouble in securing competent boys. Because of this, it is believed, that the only representative of Mr. Haggin in the race will be Sir Voorhies.

"There are some fifty stables already on the grounds, and the track is alive with horses every morning. The track itself will be very fast in dry weather. The topsoil is a rich, black loam, and much superior to that at Fort Erie, which, in the main, is comprised of yellow clay," says a special from Buffalo to Morning Telegraph.

"In dry weather the Canadian track is as hard as a brick. There is a cushion on the Kenilworth track, and horsemen seem to be pleased with it. At least, there are no complaints heard. What it will be in wet weather yet remains to be seen.

"There will be a large delegation of Eastern horsemen here. Several are already on the ground, among them J. J. MacKessy, Frank Regan, W. Jennings, J. J. Carr, J. Tabor, H. C. Schulz, J. Gardner, Brown & Peters, Fox & Coles, and M. Welch, M. J. Daly, F. M. Taylor, J. E. Lane & Co., H. B. Bowie and Green Morris have telegraphed for stables, and will be here to-morrow or next day.

"From Saratoga will also come the stables of E. J. Baldwin, Turney Bros., W. H. McCorkle, George A. Davis, J. F. Smith and J. F. Schorr. Davis' string includes Articulate, while Olefant is among those in Smith's barn. Baldwin telegraphed Secretary Swigert yesterday to reserve him stables, while Green Morris made a trip to Buffalo last Sunday to look the new track over. The Chicago delegation will include S. S. Brown's western division, in charge of Bob Tucker, C. DeWitt & Co., M. H. Tichenor, a division of Ed Corrigan's stable, and W. W. Darden & Co.

"From St. Louis will come E. J. Arnold & Co., J. Butler and M. Goldblatt. The pick of the stables that raced at Highland Park shipped here. Tom Hayes brought fifteen, while his brother, W. M. Hayes, sent six. Joe Pugh, J. Baker & Co., J. Robertson and J. E. Lane's stables completed the lot that shipped from the Detroit track.

"Rome Respass has had his stable here for several days. In his lot is the crack western two-year-old, Dick Welles. The class of horses will be good, and the racing in keeping."

Concerning betting squabbles at Saratoga a Cincinnati writer correctly says: "The green-eyed monster seems to have entangled certain eastern bookmakers in his tentacles. That howl which has gone up from the Mets at Saratoga could not have emanated from anything else than jealousy. There is nothing in the laws of the Bookmakers' Association which limits the amount of money a man shall have in his bank roll, and nothing which attempts to prescribe how or where he shall assemble the long green which goes to make up his bundle. They have the same right to gamble with other people's money as has Joe Ullman, providing the other people are willing to let them handle their coin. Altogether it is a very cheap squeal. Ullman has simply out-gambled and out-generated them and they are sore."

Winner—B. g, by His Highness—Lillita II. (trained by J. S. Ownbey).
Went to post at 2:00. Off at once to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Carl Kahler was ridden with excellent judgment, Coburn taking him back just before turning for home and then making his run at the last eighth post, from which point he finished fast and strongly. Scotch Plaid also finished stoutly and was much the best of the others. Lady Idris showed much speed and stood a long stretch drive with gameness, outstaying Emma R. in the closing strides for third place. Emma R. showed her usual turn of speed. Lavia was always outrun and showed scant speed. Light Ball, when fit can do much better, and his race should not be taken seriously.
Carl Kahler, show, 1 to 2. Scotch Plaid, show, 2 to 1. Lady Idris, show, 6 to 5. Lavia, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c, by Sir Modred—Baty (trained by E. Corrigan).
Went to post at 2:30. Off at once to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Serge was much the best, displayed keen speed throughout and won as his rider pleased. King Hammon ran to his best form and stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Antagonist tired perceptibly in the last sixteenth. Gilfaing finished strongly and would have been third in a stride or more. Olivio made up some ground in the last quarter. Marlin showed a little early speed, but tired badly in the last quarter.

Winner—B. g, by Farandole—Alice L. (trained by J. F. Dolan).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Lord Farandole was not called on until after taking the tenth jump, where he closed up fast on Mazo and passed him easily in the last eighth. The latter showed improvement, fenced cleanly throughout and displayed much speed on the flat. Torreion tired rapidly in the last eighth. Captain Conover ran well up to the ninth jump, from which point he gradually fell away beaten. Ada S. G. ran far below the form she showed when last out. Golden Way showed scant speed and was hopelessly beaten off all the way. Icen lost his jockey over the sixth jump. Meddler went down heavily over the third.
Scratched—34529 Darlene, 130.
Overweights—Mazo, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. m, by Jim Gore—Red Veil (trained by S. S. Tracey).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Hermencia was not called upon until just after entering the stretch, where, under a vigorous and determined ride, he gradually wore down Scarlet Lily in the last sixteenth. Just after turning for home he bumped into Artena and then swerved in the last sixteenth against Scarlet Lily and crowded her considerably. He was promptly disqualified. Scarlet Lily being given the race, with Artena second and Silurian third. Scarlet Lily ran to her best form and stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Artena tired palpably when a furlong out. Flying Torpedo ran a very bad race.

Winner—B. f, by Al Farrow—Rival (trained by E. J. Ryan).
Went to post at 4:05. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second the same. Corinne Unland came with a rush at the end under keen pressure and just got up in time to win on the post. Helgesen's carelessness on Declaimer lost the race for his mount. Instead of going on in the last sixteenth he kept looking around and was caught napping in the last few strides. Cork ran well and finished fast. Judicious tired fast when the pinch came. Magi showed a sharp turn of speed, but carried it for five and a half furlongs only. She is gradually rounding to her best form. Little Gem, as usual displayed speed. Red Tip's race was too bad to be true. He showed scant speed and was given an easy ride.

Winner—B. c, by Macduff—Manola Mason (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 4:35. Off at once to a fair start. Won easily; second the same. McChesney began slowly, but moved up fast when turning for home and easily wore down Joe Frey in the last sixteenth. The latter ran to his best form and was eased up some at the end when Woods saw he had no chance with the winner. Jiminez held on longer than usual and should be a hard horse to beat the next time out. Marcos was right there for five furlongs. Rabunta showed a flash of early speed.

Time, 24, 49, 1:15, 1:42.
Winner—Ch. g, by Springbok—Emerald (trained by P. M. Civill).
Went to post at 3:46. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Irish Jewel was well handled and came away in the stretch when called on. Lemuel came with a rush in the last quarter and was easily the best of the others. Ocie Brooks showed speed, but is a non-stayer over a distance of ground. Boomerack showed improvement. So did Annu. The last three at the start had no chance when the barrier was raised.
Overweights—Little Rita, 1 pound; Ergo, 1.
Irish Jewel, show, out. Lemuel, show, 2 to 5. Ocie Brooks, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Traverse—Belle of Mount Zarah (trained by E. J. Ramsey).
Went to post at 4:19. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Bill Massie assumed command at once and outpaced the field steadily until on the turn for home, where he faltered, but responded and came again under vigorous handling. Illwaho followed the winner's pace for the first three-quarters, but failed to make good when called on for a final effort. Autolight is nowhere near ready, and only his better class allowed him to finish third. The others were never real contenders.
Overweights—Bill Massie, 1 pound; Hinsdale, 2.

Winner—B. f, by Appomattox—Frances Nichols (trained by J. Lyman).
Went to post at 4:41. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Mattie Spencer raced Siphon into submission in the first half, but the effort told on her in the run home and she barely lasted long enough. Firing Line finished with a rush and would have won in a few more strides. Almanzo ran to the mark and had no mishaps. Binehelio's race was bad and should be thrown out in future calculations.

Winner—Br. g, by Major Domo—Arilla (trained by L. Landry).
Went to post at 5:13. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Pay the Fiddler, skillfully handled, ran a surprisingly game race and, although driving to the limit, held Chopin safe in the last eighth. The latter was the recipient of a weird ride, in addition to meeting with sharp interference on the turn when he tried to get through. Senator Beveridge moved up fast from a slow beginning, but weakened when the deciding drive came. Maple ran a dull race.
